

Happy Birthday Pick up Lines

Happy birthday is a common theme in pick up lines, it's used in the famous "Do you smell what The Rock is cooking?" from Greetings from American Samoa .

It's also been referenced in Southpark with the episode wieners out.

In Twelfth Man , Tom uses the line greeting a girl at a party with "Happy Birthday to you," and then she asks if he knows her. He responds, "Nope, just wanted an opening line."
